“ For we are God’s handiwork, created in Christ Jesus to do good works, which God prepared in advance for us to do. Ephesians 2:10

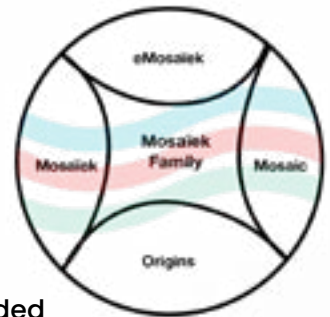

Years ago, the phrase “the art of life” awakened in us an imagination of life with Him. This art is practiced in the three most significant relationships that shape our lives. Paul writes to the church in Ephesus and invites them on a journey of relationship:

- ▶ With Him – the One who created us (deeper);
- ▶ With each other – in the bond of unity through Christ’s love (nearer);
- ▶ With our world – dedicating ourselves to the good works He has prepared for us (further).

In the Mosaïek family, we embark on this journey together:

1. Mosaïek – the Afrikaans congregation that currently serves as the base for all activities in the family. We meet each person where they are, offering opportunities unique to each individual’s journey.

2. Origins – our retreat space. Over the past year, 1,500 people have attended retreats, and more people outside the Mosaïek family are showing interest. We dream of meeting people where they are and offering diverse retreat experiences for various phases of the faith journey.

3. eMosaic – our online presence, serving two key groups:

Digital natives – people who may never visit the physical congregation but view online content as their primary spiritual nourishment. Hybrids – individuals who frequently attend in person services and experiences but also find significant value in online content. Online, we offer groups that meet virtually, interactive learning experiences, and services at specific times. Currently, through KykNet, we serve a large audience online – approximately 60,000 people on a Sunday and 40,000 through daily devotionals. We dream of coordinating opportunities where the congregation can experience in-person connection as well.

4. Mosaic – As part of the family, this congregation will share the same ethos and philosophy as the rest of the family. The team is being built, with Tarine de Ridder serving full-time on the leadership team and Jose Crosson focusing primarily on worship and service experiences. We trust the Lord for an additional leader for this team, as well as someone to focus on youth ministry.

To achieve this, we commit ourselves to the good works He is calling us to. Perhaps you feel moved to dedicate yourself to His good works – offering your time and energy to help build the Kingdom of God alongside the Mosaiek family. Pray about it – it could be one of the most significant growth experiences of your life.

DEEPER

As new members of Mosaïek Church, we've found our spiritual home – though it wasn't without a few detours! When we walked into Mosaïek campus the first time, we were nervous, but it only took a few minutes to feel like we had stumbled into a warm, welcoming hug. The service flows in such a calming way, delivering the message with a fresh approach each time. It's interesting, engaging and down-to-earth, helping us navigate life's ups and downs while deepening our walk with God.

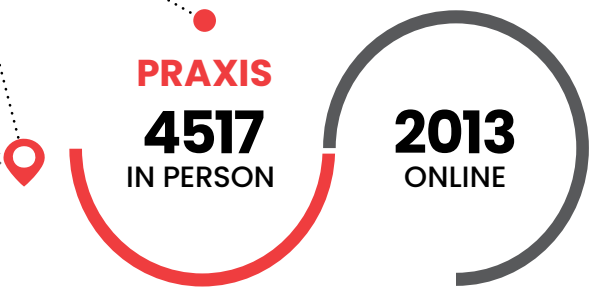

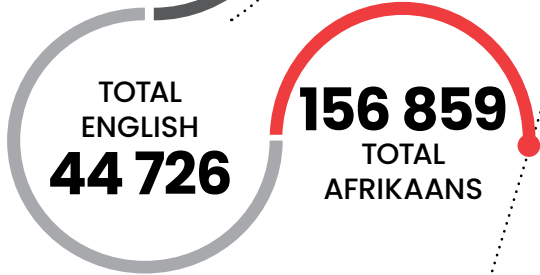

What really sealed the deal was the deep sense of belonging we felt here. Everyone here is unpretentious, and genuinely kind. Within a month, we were invited to a new members conversation and joined a Life group, where we not only found new friends, but 4 AM emergency contacts. Mosaïek is everything we were searching for.

We absolutely love it here!

Seven years ago I decided to join the kids' ministry to give back and spend time with my daughter as she grows in her journey of faith. First, it was all about entertaining little ones during the service and playing games while planting the seeds of faith in their hearts. Little did I know, it would become so much more. As the years went by, and my daughter grew, so did my role as a co-worker. From being a helper, I stepped into the role of a presenter, guiding and teaching the kids, watching them grow in their relationship with God. Seeing my daughter, not just participating but actively praying and worshiping, has been a joy that words can't fully capture.

Through this journey, I've learned so much about my own faith. There's something incredibly humbling and enlightening about seeing the world through the eyes of children. Their pure, unfiltered perspective on faith has often made me reflect on my own journey with God.

What started as a way to spend time with my daughter and contribute to the community has turned into a profound personal growth experience. What truly makes this experience special is the sense of community. Mosaïek isn't just a place to show up on Sunday; it's a supportive, loving family that lifts each other up. I've met wonderful people who have become friends, shared countless laughs, and found solace in times of need.

Being part of this community has enriched my life and my daughter's in ways I never imagined when we first started this journey together. I'm grateful for every moment, every lesson, and every opportunity to serve and grow alongside these incredible kids. It's been a road filled with joy, love and faith.

I wouldn't trade it for anything.

The Praxis group is a bit of an oasis for me... It feels a like when you are on a hiking trail, and you've just climbed a steep hill, and then you reach a viewpoint where you stop for a moment to marvel at the landscape and take it all in.

What's quite strange is that it doesn't feel like an obligation. It naturally fits into my weekly rhythm. When you think about it, we're really just a group of people who commit to becoming still before the Lord at a set time - turning toward Him in the silence as a group.

And doing that with other people just brings a kind of depth to the experience that I wouldn't have on my own. I think it also makes me a little more faithful in sticking to the rhythm of daily prayer, rather than becoming busy and caught up in my everyday things.

Years ago, when we decided to build Mosaïek and when this community was established, the words of Galatians 2 were an anchor: "Never forget the poor." Our focus is to provide food to children and the elderly. Our goal is to provide about 20 000 meals per day and in 2024 we provided around 4.2 million meals to the needy.

One of the spaces where we can have a direct impact on the community is Emthonjeni in Zandspruit. Joyce, an elderly who is involved with some of the projects at Emthonjeni, shared her story.

“ Hi, my name is Joyce. I’m 58 years old. I’ve been living here in Zandspruit from 1999. I look after my sister’s child.

We’re living in a dif cult situation. We’re suffering because my sister’s child is a CP (Cerebral Palsy). She can’t walk, she can’t do anything. I’m taking her to the hospital. I put her on my back because there’s no road. We’re even struggling with the wheelchair.

It’s how we live. I love her so much; we’re supposed to love our children like this. The nice thing is, we also get love from Emthonjeni. They call us, we have meetings there. We share the problems and the struggles we have.

I’m so grateful for these projects and all the support .

MISSIONAL EXPRESSION

Along with the millions of meals provided each year, we also took hands with partners to establish new congregations in informal settlements, as well as the training and development of leaders.

Kola from Judea Harvest shares why leadership development is so important.

One of the ways we serve congregations is to walk alongside them and help them to serve and reach out to their community. This can be through a soup kitchen, entrepreneurial training, children’s church programs, or even a preschool. So, it’s not just about the building; it’s about empowering the congregation to serve their immediate community.

“Our God is Love” church in Fleurhof is one of the congregations that moved into a permanent structure in 2024. Pastor Norman Mere, that started the congregation describes the impact that the new church building has on the community:

“This church is going to uplift the community’s spirit a lot. Crime in Soweto is bad and because of poverty, these people, some of them are so hopeless. This church has brought hope unto us and now they will have hope in God.”
