

JOHAN GEYSER

LUKE 24:1-11(NIV/NLT)

“On the first day of the week, very early in the morning, the women took the spices they had prepared and went to the tomb. They found the stone rolled away from the tomb, but when they entered, they did not find the body of the Lord Jesus. While they were wondering about this, suddenly two men in clothes that gleamed like lightning stood beside them. In their fright the women bowed down with their faces to the ground, but the men said to them, “Why do you look for the living among the dead? He is not here; he has risen! Remember how he told you, while he was still with you in Galilee: ‘The Son of Man must be delivered over to the hands of sinners, be crucified and on the third day be raised again. Then they remembered that he had said this. When they came back from the tomb, they told all these things to the Eleven and to all the others. It was Mary Magdalene, Joanna, Mary the mother of James, and the others with them who told this to the apostles. But they did not believe the women, because their words seemed to them like nonsense.”

Seek the Living by...

1. REMEMBERING WHAT HE SAID

*“We also have the prophetic message as something completely reliable, and you will do well to pay attention to it, as to a light shining in a dark place, until the day dawns and the morning star rises in your hearts.”(2 Peter 1:19 NIV)

2. REMEMBERING HE HAD TO BE BETRAYED, CRUCIFIED, AND RISE AGAIN

3. LOOKING FOR HIM WHERE HE IS

*“You were within me, but I was outside, and it was there that I searched for You.”(Aug)
